St. Patrick's Message
God Set Us Free
PATRICK OF IRELAND (c. 385 – c. 461)
excerpted & translated by ADAM F MCCUNE

Everyone who practices sin is a slave to sin. …If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. John 8:34, 36 ESV

Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you. Psalm 50:15 ESV

Our holy God who makes us whole
Gave us himself to love and know.
We turn to him with all our soul,
And so our love can grow.

We confess that we are sinners.
God has saved us—hear and see!
Though we had been enslaved to sin,
His mercy set us free!

Chorus
God said, "I will set you free.
When you're in trouble, call on me."
We all were in captivity
Until God set us free.

Though we are bound, he'll loose our chain,
And though we die, still we will rise.
Where death will be no more we'll reign
With Christ in paradise.

Chorus
God said, "I will set you free.
When you're in trouble, call on me."
We all were in captivity
Until God set us free.

This is our declaration!
God is our consolation!
He calls from every nation
His people to be free!

Chorus
God said, "I will set you free.
When you're in trouble, call on me."
We all were in captivity
Until God set us free.
