

Augustine, City of God, Book 14

OUTLINE

Chapter 1 | Introduction

The city of this world is the result of the Fall into sin; God's grace rescued the citizens of the City of God.

The city of this world lives by the standards of the flesh; the City of God lives by the standards of the spirit.

Chapters 2-9 | The standards of the flesh

Chapters 2-5 | The standards of the "flesh" (of man or of the self) are different from literal flesh (the body).

Chapters 6-9 | Emotions and love can be good or bad.

Chapters 6-7 | Emotions and love can be good or bad.

Chapters 8-9 | The Stoics' errors about emotion

Chapters 10-26 | Adam and Eve's Fall into sin

Chapters 10-15 | The origin of sin

Chapters 10-11 | Emotions and will before the Fall

Chapters 12-15 | The origin of sin

Chapters 16-26 | Sex is God's creation, but before the Fall it was free from sinful lust.

Chapters 16-17 | Sinful lust and shame

Chapters 18-20 | Sex and shame; sinful lust did not exist before sin.

Chapters 21-22 | God's design for sex before the Fall

Chapters 23-25 | Will and the body; true happiness impossible in this life

Chapters 26 | Sex before the Fall, without the shame of lust

Chapter 27 | The Fall and God's plan

Chapter 28 | The City of God and the city of this world